

Rupert Holmes-Escape

( /C /F Am G /F G / C Em Dm C ) x2

N.C.                    /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
I was tired of my lady,       we'd been together too long
                         /F Am G /F       G                    /C Em Dm /C
Like a worn-out recording,       of a favorite song
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
So, while she lay there sleepin',       I read the paper in bed
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
And in the personal columns,       there was this letter I read

N.C.                    /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
If you like Pina Colada,       and gettin' caught in the rain
                         /F Am G /F       G                    /C Em Dm /C
If you're not into yoga,       if you have half a brain
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
If you like makin' love at midnight,       in the dunes of the cape
                         /F Am G /F       G                    /C Em Dm /C
I'm the lady you've looked for,       write to me and escape

Jam ( /F Am G /F G /C Em Dm /C ) x2

                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
I didn't think about my lady,       I know that sounds kind of mean
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
But me and my old lady,       had fallen into the same old dull routine
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
So, I wrote to the paper,       took out a personal ad
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
And though I'm nobody's poet,       I thought it wasn't half bad

Chorus:

                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
So, I waited with high hopes,       when she walked in the place
                         /F Am G /F                    G                    /C Em Dm /C
I knew her smile in an instant,       I knew the curve of her face
                         /F Am G /F       G                    /C Em Dm /C
It was my own lovely lady,       and she said, "Oh, it's you"
                         /F Am G /F       G                    /C Em Dm /C
And we laughed for a moment,       and I said, "I never knew
